CLADDAGH CREDIT UNION

Your Loyal Financial Partner

MEMBERSHIP NUMBER:

I: Of: hereby nominate:

Name	Address	% of Funds	Contact No.	Relationship

To become entitled to such property in the Credit Union which I may have at a time of my death, whether in savings or otherwise, not exceeding the limit of the amount for the time being authorised by law.

OR

I do not wish to nominate any person to my Credit Union Property and I am aware that this account will be processed through my estate

PLEASE NOTE:

A valid nomination covers all Credit Union property but that property may be assigned to one person or divided between various nominees. Any clearly identified person can be a nominee - it does not necessarily have to be next of kin.

The person(s) nominated will be the beneficiary(s) of your Credit Union property subject to the maximum permitted by law which is currently €27,000. Any excess over this amount will form part of your Estate.

The nomination will supersede your will and is not revocable or variable by your will or any codicil to it.

The marriage of a member of a Credit Union revokes any nomination made by him/her before his/her marriage.

Death of the nominee (prior to that of the nominator) automatically revokes that nomination. It would be in your best interest to update your nomination form at this time.

Completion of a new nomination revokes all previous nominations.
